Girl Scout Adults Plan Skills Day

Girl Scout Adult Skills Day training will be brought to Hope on April 15. The hours will be 9:30 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. at the Little House in Fair Park. Bring a sack lunch, pencil and notebook.

This is for all interested leaders, assistant leaders, troop committee members and persons interested in helping in Girl Scout Day Camp. The course is fun as well as constructive.

If you are planning to take the course, call Mrs. Calvin Smith or Mrs. Fred McElroy. Registration must be in by Tuesday, April 7.

Dr. Harris Heads Local Red Cross

At a meeting Thursday, April 2, of the board of directors of the Red Cross Chapter, the following officers were elected:

Dr. Lowell Harris, Chairman; Mitchell LaGrone, Vice Chairman; Mrs. Mabel Ward, Treasurer; and Mrs. Harry Cagle, Secretary.

The Red Cross Blood program was discussed and Mrs. Mabel Ward agreed to serve as temporary chairman until the five organizations meet to elect permanent officers. Five Women's groups will direct the Activity of securing donors in advance and working as service volunteers on the day the Mobile unit comes to the county for its quarterly visit.

The women's groups are the Business and Professional women, Jayettes, Junior Auxiliary, Hempstead County Republican Women, and Home Demonstration Council. The date of the first visit of the mobile unit has been set for June 9, 1964. The hours will be determined later.

When Hempstead County becomes a member, the entire county is entitled to protection and use of the bank. Under this program the total blood requirements for you and your family will be met. This means that if you or your family are hospitalized and need whole blood, in any amount, it will be provided for you. Blood derivatives are also available. Total blood needs of all persons eligible under the Red Cross Blood program will be met anywhere in the United States.

If you receive blood, and are eligible under the Red Cross Blood program you will not be charged for the blood itself. However, you may be charged $10 per unit of blood by the hospital to reimburse the Red Cross for part of the cost of collecting, processing, and delivering each pint of blood of hospitals in Arkansas. The balance of this cost is borne by the American National Red Cross and individual Red Cross chapters through their annual independent or federated fund campaigns. The Hospital will continue to charge its normal laboratory and Transfusion fees.

The local workers plan an early meeting to complete details for the first visit of the mobile blood unit.

If You See a Drunken Robin in Your Yard, Chalk Another One Up for Chinaberry Tree

By JAY WEST

Editor and Publisher

Laurel Leader—Call

LAUREL, Miss. (AP)—If you see a drunken robin reeling around in your yard these spring days, please take it into your house until it sobers up and can resume its flight northward.

It is likely intoxicated with the fermented juice around seeds from the chinaberry tree. The seeds are encased with pulpy covering and it is this that ferments and causes enough alcohol to put red robin on a jag.

When the robin gets enough to start reeling it loses wing power and is a likely prey for natural enemies—cats and dogs. In defense of the drunken robin it should be told that for most of the year it feeds soberly on seeds from dogwood, choke berries, juniper berries and small fruits.

But when time comes for the spring trip from south to north, about all that is left is the chinaberry. Spring rains have soaked the berries. The warm sun has fermented them.

Some bird watchers are of the opinion the robin is not natural-

MacArthur's Condition Is Still Critical

By JOHN BARBOUR

WASHINGTON (AP) — General of the Army Douglas MacArthur's condition remains critical, but the emergency treatment started Thursday try to meet the problem of diminished kidneys action is functioning quite satisfactorily," his doctors reported today.

A medical bulletin from Walter Reed Army Hospital at 9:30 a.m. also said there has been no bleeding from the general's esophagus for the past 20 hours. Therefore a tube that as been inserted through his throat and esophagus, into his stomach is being removed this morning.

"However," the bulletin added, "his condition remains critical."

The bulletin reported that the five star general "passed a fair night," and that his blood pressure remained at 110-60—presumably at about the same point as late Thursday afternoon—and that his pulse was at 96, still somewhat elevated, and his temperature at 99.2, just slightly above normal.

The doctors were fighting to give their patient sorely needed time to recover vital processes.

In admiration, they credited his stamina through 11 days of critical condition to "his heart, his constitution and his will to live."

His chances are not considered good, but the decline in kidney and heart function reported Thursday morning stabilized by afternoon.

The 84-year-old general has survived three major operations two of them emergencies, in 32 days at Walter Reed Army Medical Center.

His blood pressure and pulse, previously reported as indicating a loss of heart efficiency, were last reported within normal.

Lions Broom Sale Set for Monday

The Hope Lions club will have their annual broom sale Monday, April 13. For many years, Lions of Hope have sold brooms, made in Arkansas, to benefit the blind center in Little Rock and carry on local sight work. The annual average expenditure for local sight conservation work is $335.00 and funds for the blind center range from $800.00 to $1,000.00 per year.

This money comes from the sale of brooms in the spring and light bulbs in the fall. Remember, Lions will be knocking on your door April 13 offering two types of brooms and mops. This is also the start of the inter-city clean-up, paint up and beautifying campaign so you will be needing brooms and mops. Buy them from the Lions and Benefit the blind of this area and the state of Arkansas.

ly inclined toward drunkenness. It's just that the alcohol-soaked chinaberries are the only food it can find.

The chinaberry tree is a native of the Southern states and Mexico. In its wild state, it seldom grows north of the southernmost Tennessee line. That is why most bird lovers in the North have never seen a drunken robin. The chinaberry is cultivated in a lot of Southern yards as an ornamental tree and because of its heavy shade.

So, kind sir, if you will, please pick up the robin after its yearling binge and let it sober up until it is able to fly north.

It should be protected because it has the strongest personality of all birdhood, despite its spring toddy.

John Burroughs, the naturalist, described it as the "most native and democratic" of all birds in the United States. The robin's song is pleasant and highly varied.

In the North, in the summer-time, it is seen singly, or near its mate, hunting for the early worm. But in the winter it travels to the Gulf Coast where it lives with big, friendly flocks in the piney woods.

Arkansans Pull Out of Egg War

SPRINGDALE, Ark. (AP) — Tzson Foods, Inc., of Springdale, announced Thursday that it was pulling out of the "egg war" that sent Oklahoma producers complaining to Gov. Henry Bellmon.

Oklahoma companies said Tyson used their area as a dumping ground for surplus Arkansas eggs.

Don Tyson, executive vice president, said his firm would reduce commercial laying operations, and expand egg sales only in areas "that really want the highest quality products at the lowest possible cost."

He denied that he "dumped" surplus eggs in Oklahoma, and said, "We were trying to think of the housewife when we made our expansion plans by trying to give her a top quality egg at a fair price."

Tyson said his firm was a part of the Oklahoma economy, used Oklahoma milk, alfalfa meal, butane and gasoline, and spent $250,000 annually at Oklahoma City.

Crash Fliers Will Undergo Examination

WASHINGTON (AP) — The pilot and navigator of the RB66 reconnaissance bomber which strayed into Communist East Germany last month will go before an Air Force board which will determine whether they are qualified to continue flying.

The Air Force announced this today in saying that a fact-finding inquiry panel had found that a "gross navigational error" resulting from erroneous indications "from a navigational compass caused the crew of the RB66 to believe they were on the right course "when actually they were not."

"However, the board reported that additional factors in the plane being off course appeared to be a lack of complete crew coordination and a failure to cross-check the plane's position by other navigational means available," the announcement said.

Capt. David I. Holland, 35, of Holland, Mich., was the pilot of the RB66 and Capt. Melvin J. Kessler, 30, of Philadelphia, was the navigator.

Now in Wiesbaden, Germany, they will be returned to Tuslo-sieries Air Base in France to go before the flying evaluation board.

Group Okays $50 Millions for Alaska

By WARD SIMS

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—Gov. William A. Egan flies to Juneau today to urge a joint session of the Legislature to approve a $50-million emergency bond issue to help earthquake-torn Alaskan cities.

The amount is only a tenth of the estimated loss but, says Egan, it will show Alaska is willing to do everything possible to pull itself up by its bootstraps.

President Johnson urged Congress to approve $50 million in emergency funds quickly and in Seattle, Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., predicted eventual congressional approval of up to $200 million.

Jackson, attending a meeting of 500 state and federal officials and Seattle businessmen, proposed a government-sponsored retroactive disaster insurance plan. He said the precedent of retroactive insurance was established during World War II when the government offered war-risk insurance to persons suffering property losses.

Alaska Sen. E.L. Bartlett told the meeting his state has an assessed valuation of $815 million and damage, in terms of replacement costs, would amount to about $550 million.

While others talked of money for the vast rehabilitation tasks, Alaskans continued doing the little jobs that bring order out of chaos. Homes, shaken but liveable, were straightened and it was back to school for youngsters in many places.

The weather turned cold and snow began to fall. But it could not cover the ugly piles of rubble in the center of this beautiful city, Alaska's largest.

Heat and power have been restored to most of the city and telephone service is back to normal. It is being overtaxed, however, by anxious relatives and friends.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — A young man raised by James R. Hoffa has been indicted on charges of offering a $25,000 bribe to a member of the jury which convicted the Teamsters Union president of jury tampering.

Charles L. O'Brien, 29, business agent for a Detroit Teamster local, is accused of offering the money March 9 to Callie Key, a Negro widow, if she would swear Hoffa did not receive a fair trial.

O'Brien posted $15,000 bond and was released pending arraignment.

As a child, O'Brien was taken into Hoffa's home after his father, a Kansas City truck driver, was killed. Hoffa recently said O'Brien is "a boy who I have raised since he was a baby." O'Brien, his wife and their two children live in Hoffa's Detroit home.

The alleged bribe offer took place five days after Hoffa was convicted here and three days before he was sentenced to eight years in prison and fined $10,000.

O'Brien has been in Chattanooga since the trial's end seeking affidavits in an effort to win a new trial for Hoffa. The Teamsters leader and three others were convicted of trying to tamper with the jury which heard Hoffa's 1962 conspiracy trial in Nashville. That case ended in a mistrial.

Special Prosecutor John J. Hooker of Nashville said earlier that Mrs. Key, 63, treasurer of the Tennessee Federation of Negro Women's Clubs, had been approached with a bribe offer, and turned it down. Mrs. Key was the only Negro on the jury. The indictment was the first returned by a grand jury investigating events during and since the trial. The jury which has recessed until April 13, has heard testimony from Bernard E. Spindel, a professional wire-tapper, and several employees at the Read House Hotel.

Spindel, an electronics expert from New York, was hired by defense lawyers during the trial to try to prove that FBI agents spied on Hoffa. He testified he monitored conversations between government agents watching Hoffa's hotel.

Victorious Anti-Communists in Brazil Declare Goulart Has Fled Into Argentina

By FRANK BRUTTO

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)—Victorious army leaders of Brazil's anti-Communist revolution said deposed President Joao Goulart fled into Argentina today, but Argentine border officials said they had not seen the ousted leftist.

An army spokesman said early today Goulart had left his ranch at Sao Borja, on the Argentine border, bound by car for Buenos Aires and "already in Argentine territory." Goulart was reported accompanied by his family and Gen. Assis Brasil, chief of his personal military staff.

Authorities in Argentine border provinces said, however, Goulart had not entered the country and that border patrols were alerted for any clandestine crossing. Airport control towers in Paraguay and Uruguay also were watching for him.

The military leaders of the swift, almost bloodless revolution, who charged that Goulart's leftist policies were leading Brazil into communism, sent six army officers to Sao Borja to arrest him if he remained at his ranch.

Goulart, abandoning his vow to fight to the death, vanished Thursday after flying out of Porto Alegre, his last redoubt in Brazil's deep south. Informants said he gave up to prevent the bloodshed of a futile resistance.

The deposed president had fled to the southern seaport, capital of his home state of Rio Grande do Sul, earlier in the day from Rio de Janeiro. Army troops were converging on Rio then in the last stages of the two-day revolution in which only two deaths were reported.

In Brasilia, the inland capital, new President Paschoal Ranieri Mazzilli, president of the Chamber of Deputies, was sworn in as Goulart's constitutional successor by Congress Thursday after Senate President Auro Andrade declared the presidency vacant.

Mazzilli, 54, a conservative politician, immediately set about forming a government to try to cope with Brazil's staggering budget deficit, rampant inflation, labor unrest and the need for profound social reform, especially land redistribution.

President Johnson sent Mazzilli his "warmest good wishes" and expressed admiration for the way Brazilians settled their difficulties "within the framework of constitutional democracy and without civil strife."

The world Communist press denounced Goulart's overthrow as a plot hatched in the United States.

The downfall of Goulart's Communist-influenced government sent more than a million persons pouring into Rio de Janeiro's main streets Thursday night for a tumultuous celebration.

Army leaders who launched the revolt north of Rio Tuesday night said the situation throughout the country was calm.

Says Ranger 6 Was Poorly Made

NEW YORK (AP) — Space chief James E. Webb has told the chairman of the Senate and House Space committees that Ranger 6, which crash-landed on the moon Feb. 2, was poorly designed and inadequately tested before launching, the New York Herald Tribune said today.

Webb, chief of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, listed major faults of Ranger 6 in a letter to Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., and Rep. George P. Miller, D-Calif., the newspaper said in a Washington dispatch by Stuart H. Loory.

Says Boycott Won't Knock Out Castro

WASHINGTON (AP) — Undersecretary of State George Ball said today the U.S.-sponsored economic boycott of Cuba is not expected to bring down the Castro regime but will make clear that "communism has no future in the Western Hemisphere."

In an interview on the "Today" program of the NBC television network, Ball said he disagrees with the statement recently made by Chairman J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, that Communism Prime Minister Fidel Castro is not so much a danger as a nuisance in the western hemisphere.

"The danger of Castro's Cuba," Ball said, is that it represents "a focus for Communist infection for the whole of Latin America."

Ball said the Cuban economy is running 20 per cent under the level of activity before Castro took over. He said this is important in showing the failure of communism to other Western Hemisphere countries. Furthermore, he said the economic boycott has had the effect of raising "the level of costs" to the Soviet Union in supporting the Castro regime in power.

U.S. to Work Closely With Brazil Regime

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today the United States is ready "to work very closely" with the new government of Brazil in tackling Brazil's difficult problems of economic and social development.

President Johnson had sent a message to new Brazilian President Ranieri Mazzilli Thursday night, congratulating him on Brazil's having solved its government change within that nation's constitutional framework.

This established U.S. recognition of the new regime following the ouster of President Joao Goulart.

Rusk told a news conference that Goulart had been overthrown by a combination of forces representing fears in the Brazilian Congress, armed forces, and among state governors that constitutional government in the country was in danger.

"They moved to insure the constitutional process," Rusk said. Goulart's enemies had accused him of leading the country down the road to communism and U.S. officials had become alarmed about Communists moving into positions of power in Brazil.

Undersecretary of State George Ball today described the political upheaval in Brazil as "a rather remarkable event and not at all the usual coup" which frequently occurs in Latin America.

Ball asserted that "all elements of the country, the military, state governors, Congress" had combined to force Goulart out of office.

Actually, he said, they were acting "to preserve constitutional government by stopping efforts to undermine the constitution."

Speaking on the NBC television program "Today," Ball said the Brazilians now face "very difficult problems" particularly those arising out of inflation. He said it will "take enormous efforts" for the Brazilians to get their economic house in order.

Thinks Talk Made Good Deal of Sense

NEW YORK (AP)—W. Averell Harriman, undersecretary of state for political affairs, says Sen. J. William Fulbright's controversial analysis of U.S. foreign policy "made a good deal of sense, although I don't necessarily agree with all of it."

DOROTHY DIX

WHY DO SOME PEOPLE WANT TO BE SCARED?
By DR. JOYCE BROTHERS

Dear Dr. Brothers: I have a friend who seems to enjoy being afraid. She watches the mystery shows on television, and goes to every horror movie. I wonder if something's wrong with her. —P. M.

Dear P. M.: It seems strange that millions of people spend millions of dollars every year just to be frightened. Some of them are active in their search for frightening experiences—the race driver, the mountain climber, the undersea diver. Others seek danger vicariously. They watch a substitute. They experience all of the physical and mental symptoms of fear, without actual danger.

Psychology has established the idea that many of these active seekers are self-destructive. They have some deep feeling of guilt, and are trying to punish themselves for some imagined or actual wrong they have committed. So they are reckless and heedless, tempting fate to erase some conscious or unconscious guilt.

But you question why your friend and millions of others enjoy being frightened. Most of us say that we are looking for security and peace, and the resulting freedom from fear. Why, then, do we want to be frightened?

There is reason to believe that fear is probably the first emotional experience. The fear that comes with the process of birth. With the knowledge of anything but the security of the mother's womb, we're suddenly thrust out into the world. This is frightening. But our fear is immediately changed to anger and hatred. We are furious because we are born, and hate everyone in this new environment. So, fear and hatred are woven together almost inseparably.

Can People Enjoy Fear?
Rational fear is important because it warns us of danger. Our irrational fears are built upon a different foundation. They relate to guilt and hostility. In many cases, we fear because of some attitude we have against someone else. If the person knew this attitude, we would have every reason to be afraid because they would retaliate. So our irrational fears are based upon guilts, and the danger of what we unconsciously feel may become justified punishment.

mal limits "considering his age and sedation."

During his waking hours, the general retains consciousness although he is under sedation.

Doctors Thursday pressed into operation a technique which could temporarily take over part of the kidney functions.

The technique, called peritoneal dialysis, is aimed at drawing off the poisonous waste products building up in the general's blood that ordinarily would be filtered out by the kidneys.

The hope is that the kidneys will begin functioning again, for the flushing action of the artificial technique is efficient only as a temporary aid. There is always the danger after perhaps two days of use that infection might enter into the peritoneum.

To help stem possible infection that could spread rapidly in the blood-rich abdominal area, doctors used antibiotics along with the fluid chemicals of the artificial kidney process.

In the Senate Thursday, Sen. Norris Cotton, R-N.H., interrupted the civil rights debate with an appeal for consideration of a resolution by Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., to confer six-star rank on the general.

Symington's resolution, introduced last December, has the support of 27 other senators. Still, it appears blocked in the Armed Services Committee.

Four Die When Home Burns

RUSSELLVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Three children and their 64-year-old grandmother died Thursday night in a fire in their one-story frame home in this Brown County village in southern Ohio.

The victims were identified as Grace Perkins, 64; Elizabeth Ann Perkins, 2½; John Philip Perkins, 1½, and Betty Perkins, 6 months.

Mrs. Paul Edward Cobb

At seven in the evening of Friday, March 27 Miss Ruth Ann Mohon and Paul Edward Cobb exchanged wedding vows at the Garrett Memorial Baptist Church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mohon, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Tony Cobb. The Reverend Larry Gaines performed the double-ring ceremony.

The center of the altar held a tree of 33 lighted tapers accented by two 15-branched spiral candelabra holding burning candles. Pedestal baskets containing white chrysanthemums and gladioli flanked the altar with a seven-branched candelabrum behind each. The pews were adorned with burning tapers, greenery and white satin bows.

Organ music was presented by Miss Dora Ann King, cousin of the bride, who was gowned in persimmon silk organza. The soloist, Miss Charon Doss of Crosssett, wore royal blue crepe. Each had a white carnation corsage. Miss Doss sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "O Promise Me."

Candles were lighted by Misses Linda and Susan Cobb, sisters of the groom, who were identically attired in yellow embossed satin with wristlet corsages of yellow carnations.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She chose a gown of white peau de soie fashioned with a bateau neckline and a neck to hemline plunge of scalloped Chantilly lace enhanced by a small bow at the waist. Long, tightly fitted sleeves tapered to her wrists. The skirt of side and back fullness swept to a chapel train. Her finger-tip veil of silk illusion was held in place by a coronet of white peau de soie. She carried a cascade bouquet of white rosebuds and stephanotis.

Miss Brenda Hamm, maid of honor, wore green peau de soie, and Miss Kay Buffington, cousin of the bride who was her bridesmaid, wore yellow peau

Although a week has passed, the total number of casualties is not known, and may not be for some time yet. Civil Defense officials place the figure at 125 dead and missing.

There was no food shortage here, but 60,000 pounds was airlifted to Kenal, Soldotna and Homer in the hard-hit area on the peninsula south of here. Another 3,500 pounds was flown to Seward.

Military planes flew almost continuously between here and Seattle bringing in more supplies.

Aftershocks, normal following a major earthquake, continued and the U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey's seismology station at Sitka reported one Thursday that registered 6.5 on with yellow satin streamers.

The bridegroom's father served as best man. The groomsmen were Jewell Still, and the ushers were Johnny Schooley and James House, all of Hope.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Mohon wore a champagne silk shantung sheath with Chanel jacket and matching accessories. Her hat was a veiled clip of lilac flowers. Pinned at her shoulder was a purple cymbidium orchid.

Mrs. Cobb, the groom's mother, wore a French blue flat knit suit with a white overblouse embroidered in blue. Her accessories were white, and her corsage was a gold-tinged white cymbidium orchid.

After the wedding vows were exchanged, the couple ascended the altar steps to a ceremonial candle. Using two burning tapers, together they lighted the tall white cathedral candle and then extinguished their individual candles to symbolize the uniting of their lives.

Following the ceremony, the wedding party formed a receiving line in the church vestibule, where they greeted the guests. Miss Janet Guder, cousin of the bride, presided over the bride's book. She wore yellow chiffon with a corsage of white carnations.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. Ben Jackson and Vickie, Houston; Miss Linda Cathy, Mr. and Mrs. Max Buffington, Camden; Mrs. J. B. Ferguson, Texarkana, Ark.; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mohon, Markham, Tex.; Mrs. Glen Kizza and Kay, Texarkana, Tex.; Mrs. Neil Meeks and Larry, Mrs. Hester Taylor, Mrs. Jesse Griffin, Prescott.

For travel the bride wore a navy blue shantung suit with black accessories. Pinned at her shoulder was a corsage of white rosebuds. After their wedding trip the couple will be at home at 917 West 6th Street in Hope.

Prince Charles Has Beetle Cut

LONDON (AP)—Has Prince Charles adopted the Beetle cut?

The 15-year-old heir to the throne, who toots a fair trumpet and twists rather fabulously — returned Thursday night from school in Scotland. As he strode into the wind at the airport, his darkish hair came down over his eyes, Beetle style. It stayed in the familiar doon as he climbed into a royal sedan.

Squares pointed out that Charles had been exposed to clippers and shears in the rear, especially along the neck line. It was just the wind blowing on Charles' fairly long front locks, they said.

A spokesman of palace attaches said: "We really don't know if it's a Beetle hairdo or not. Doesn't look it from the rear or the sides perhaps. And we really can't ask, now can we?"

the Richter scale. Last Friday's quake registered as high as 8.6, one of the worst ever recorded.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Appropriations Committee approved today a $50 million supplemental appropriation for restoration of public facilities damaged in last week's Alaska earthquake.

The action is contingent upon approval of the disaster relief item by the House which acts first on federal appropriations. The House is in recess until Monday.

Announcing the advance Senate committee action, Sen. E. L. Bartlett, D-Alaska, said it is his understanding that President Johnson will submit a formal request for the $50 million to the House on Monday and that the House Appropriations Committee, and possibly the House, will be prepared to act that day.

The Senate committee, Bartlett said, then will file its favorable report with the idea of completing congressional action on the emergency restoration funds late Monday.

Johnson's Alaskan Reconstruction Commission, studying longer range action, plans to recommend modernization of fishing and transportation facilities.

Farmers Agree to Divert Acres

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas farmers have agreed under the 1964 grain program to divert 119,323 acres from production of grain to conservation practices. The Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service said Thursday 7,987 farmers signed up this year, compared to 7,879 last year who diverted 114,857 acres.

The farmers will receive a total of $2,582,481 in federal funds for retiring the land.

The diversion includes 103,830 acres of corn, 13,998 acres of grain sorghums, 1,495 acres of barley, and two acres of feed wheat.

White County led the list with 521 farms registered for 1964 diversions. Independence County was next with 378 farms, followed by Izard 349, Cleburne 306 and Faulkner 305.

THE WEeping WIDOW MINE

XXIX

During the hours he put in getting back to the mine Charlie not infrequently astonished his mules with the guffaws and belly laughs that came jouncing out of him from picturing Jones' face when that story got around.

Not all of those miles were covered in such glee.

Jones, when he got enough over that punch to catch a fresh breath, would be several shades closer to a fullscale explosion than a case of thawed dynamite left to dry by an open fire.

Humiliated, publicly embarrassed and denied the loot his machinations had been aimed at, he would be not only crammed with fury but brought to realize his only chance of recapturing his former high place in the community was to prove possession of a mine he didn't have - and not even this would be really sufficient. He would certainly have to produce a bonanza or get out of the country.

Clutched with the nag of these nerve - frizzling glimpses Charlie lost several hours endeavoring to louse up his trail. He plowed through sand he might otherwise have skirted; at one stretch he spent upwards of 90 minutes working his animals through a maze of broken rock ledges and then, still pursued by visions of his come-uppance, cut over into Papago country west of the Baboquivaris where he frittered away another half day trying to buy additional mules and engage a crew with nothing more substantial to put into the deal than promises.

These heroic efforts resulted in seven sorry - looking long-eared specimens blown up in the bargaining to three times their worth and five teen - age boys whose worth was so plainly debatable no one less desperate than Medders would have even looked twice at them.

The self elected segundo of this bunch was a pock-faced delinquent with an oversized nose and two mismatched eyes who went, he said, by the name of Heap Walker, and who apparently found little in life which could approach the satisfaction he got from his own voice. He carried an old and beat-up Henry repeater and was, he told Medders, the world's greatest marksman.

It was the middle of the following day, and hotter than the hinges of hell, when Charlie finally sighted the hills that hid the Weeping Widow. He had no more than put the dun mule into an apparent slant for these than Walker, breaking into a torrent of hard sounding Papago, came whistling - whanging up with a look black as thunder.

"No go there! Bad place, them hills!"

Charlie hooked a knee around his bull's cracked horn. "Yeah? What's the matter with it?"

Walker, waving his arms cried excitedly: "Bad place! Heap bad!" and the rest of the Papagos, long faced and edgy, looked about ready to dig for the tules.

Medders said scowling, "What have I got here, a bunch of squaws?"

Walker's look turned darker. His stringy arms were folded across his greasy vest. When he failed to stare Medders down the Papago stuck out a dirty claw. "Injun go home. Pay now."

Charlie didn't know what had got into their craws but he had put too much sweat and worry into this to sit calmly by while an ignorant loudmouth kicked the props out from under him. Lifting the Sharps of his lap he said with its bore fixed on Walker's chest: "You hired out to do a piece of work for me. Now git up there an' do it."

The fellow skinned back his lips in a horrible grimace and showed the whites of his eyes but in the end, very ugly, jerked his mount's head around and kicked it on up the trail, the rest of the crew sullenly filling past to fall in behind.

Sleeping sweat off his cheeks and apprehensively wondering what Belita would be making of this if she had seen, he gave the burro a nod and, rounding up the loose mules, went nervously clattering after them. From up there she'd not be able to see who they were, not anyways to pick out faces. About all he needed right now was to have her open up with that pocket gun!

But nothing untoward occurred. His schoolboys were waiting in a shivery huddle when he rounded the last rock and came in sight of the cave. He motioned them off toward the hay trap. "Turn these critters in there. When you git back we'll stir up some grub."

Considering what was down below he'd expected the girl to be camped up here, and finding no sign of her scared him.

MOSCOW, (AP) - The Soviet Union says it has launched a space vehicle from an orbiting satellite in a planetary probe.

The shot was apparently similar to U.S. space probes.

Big Kentucky Derby to Be Run Saturday

By ORLO ROBERTSON

Canadian - owned Northern Dancer and 24 other 3-year-old thoroughbreds are slated to present their Kentucky Derby credentials for consideration Saturday in four rich races topped by the $100,000-added Florida Derby at Gulfstream Park.

In addition to the 1-18 miles of the Florida Derby for which Northern Dancer is the 4-5 choice, the preps for the May 2 running of the blue ribbon event at Churchill Downs includes the one mile of the $50,000-added Gotham at Aqueduct, the 1 1/4 miles of the $25,000-added Arkansas Derby at Oaklawn Park and the one mile of the $15,000-added California Derby Trial at Golden Gate Fields.

Other 3-year-olds also are slated to go in the four stakes but it is the Kentucky Derby candidates that figure to be in the spotlight. The Florida Derby and Gotham each look for nine entries with eight in each pointing for the big Kentucky race. Five of the probable Arkansas Derby starters and four of the likely California Derby Trial field are Kentucky Derby eligibles. Each expect to draw 14 starters.

Northern Dancer, second only to Hill Rise as the Kentucky Derby future book choice, will be ridden by Bill Shoemaker in quest of his second straight Florida Derby triumph. The 33-year-old Shue won last year with Candy Spots.

The Dancer, never worse than third in 12 starts and winner of nine races, will pack 122 pounds along with four other stakes winners—Roman Brother, The Scoundrel, Dandy K. and Ky. Pioneer. All the others carry 118.

Roman Brother, leading money-winning 2-year-old of 1963, is the 4-1 second choice under Manuel Ycaza. Dandy K., winner of the Fountain of Youth last week, is 6-1 and The Scoundrel and Ky. Pioneer, 8-1. The Scoundrel comes from Rex Ellsworth stable, which sent out Candy Spots. Ky. Pioneer is Calumet's chief hope for an eighth Kentucky Derby victory.

With nine starters, the Florida Derby will gross $117,500 with $78,500 going to the winner. The Gotham has no horse that can match the reputation of Northern Dancer. But it can go a long way toward finalizing the Eastern representation at Churchill Downs May 2 with the 1 1/4 miles of the Wood Memorial on April 18 the final factor.

The probable field includes such top-flight performers as Chieftain, Determined Man, Mr. Brick, Bupers, National and Traffic. It'll be worth $57,800 with nine starters. The winner will earn $37,570.

Kentucky Derby candidates head the California Derby Trial field. They are Nearco Blue, Will Rad, Real Good Deal and Count Charles. Their final test will come in the California Derby April 18.

The Arkansas Derby has attracted five of the lesser lights of the Kentucky Derby's 138 nominations in Big Felly, Count Tario, Floral Shop, Geology and Prince Davelle.

Travelers Win Over Buffalo

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP)—Norm Gigon and Bob Lipski homered to lead the Arkansas Travelers to an explosive 14-8 exhibition baseball victory over Buffalo here Thursday.

Six Buffalo pitchers yielded 13 hits, seven walks and hit one batter. Three Bison errors contributed to the scoring.

John Morris, Jack Kerrigan, Dick Quiroz and Bernie Belan took turns on the mound for the Travelers, and allowed 12 hits.

Celtics Make It Two Over Cincinnati

By BOB HOOBING

BOSTON (AP)—"We just laid down," said frustrated Cincinnati Coach Jack McMahon. "If we get this kind of performance, I don't expect we'll win again. The Celtics will sweep us in four."

McMahon held his post-mortem outside the wake-like Royals' dressing room Thursday night after Boston defeated his team 101-90 and took a commanding 2-0 lead in the Eastern Division playoff final.

The best-of-seven National Basketball Association series now moves to Cincinnati Sunday and Tuesday nights. No team in NBA playoff annals ever has been down 0-2 in a seven-game set and pulled it out.

St. Louis, which entered the Western Division final as the underdog, takes a one-game edge into Friday night's second contest at San Francisco.

"The Celtics were aggressive," McMahon said. "We wouldn't even go after a loose ball. I'm disgusted with this team. On switches when a Boston player got by, my boys would say 'oops,' shrug and then figure it wasn't their responsibility any more."

"Look, we're the highest-scoring team in the league and we've got 87 and 90 points in the playoffs. Are they tired? How the devil can they be tired?"

"I said Jerry Lucas was 30 per cent with that back condition. Heck, he's not even 10 per cent. He looks like he's afraid to bounce the ball. He must be in pain. He keeps telling me he can play, but he can't."

"Jack Twyman had a good shooting game with 27 points but he gave up that many on defense. Oscar Robertson got 30. He'll get that many if he just gets the ball."

"I think that K.C. Jones of the Celtics is your star. He hustled, he worked the ball in and gave Boston a great game."

"K. C. Jones was great, the whole show," echoed Lucas. "I never before played a game in my life when I didn't score at least one basket."

Lucas was held to three free throws and seven rebounds.

"They played a good ball game, we played a better one," commented Boston Coach Red Auerbach. "We certainly aren't overconfident by any stretch of the imagination."

Tommy Heinsohn got 31 points and Sam Jones 25 to pace Boston scoring.

Texas Relays Step Toward the Olympics

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—The Texas Relays—first of the major outdoor track and field carnivals—opened today with everybody expected to try real hard because it is a step toward the Olympic Games.

Two Olympians were in the field, seeking a return to the big show, and one top new prospect was among the athletes seeing first action. He was massive Randy Matson, the Texas A&M freshman, who has been throwing the 16-pound shot almost 63 feet—with a strained hand.

Matson appeared in the junior college-college freshman division.

High hurdlers Billy Hardin of Louisiana State and Ed Renfrew of Arkansas, who have equaled the Texas Relays record of 13.9, will be among the first to see action.

Also, the Grambling 440-yard relay team, expected to hammer hard at the world's record of 40.0, will be seen in the college class. Grambling already has a 40.3.

Anthony Watson of Oklahoma, who broad-jumped in the last Olympics, is an entry.

Twenty finals will be run off tonight and among them will be an open 440-yard dash in which Earl Young will participate with a view toward a return to the Olympics. Young, the ex-Abilene Christian College star, was sixth in the 400 meters and ran on the winning 1,600-meter relay team in the 1960 Games.

Most of the relays are scheduled for Saturday afternoon's wind-up, when 25 final events will be run off.

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Birdie Tebbetts was reported "in satisfactory condition and doing well" early today, but doctors still wouldn't make any predictions as to when the Cleveland Indians manager would return to action.

The attending physician at St. Mary's Hospital, where Tebbetts was taken Wednesday night after a heart attack, said tests indicate there has been "some tissue damage." The doctor said no one can make positive statements about a coronary for four or five days.

The 54-year-old manager was described as resting well and not in pain.

Tebbetts was stricken while at the hotel the Tribe calls home during its annual spring training stay in Tucson.

Snead Leads Greensboro Golf Meet

By KEN ALTYA

Associated Press Sports Writer

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP)—

Jack Nicklaus hadn't been born back in 1938 when Sam Snead won the inaugural Greater Greensboro Open Golf Tournament for the first of his seven victories in Greensboro.

Young Jack, now a powerful 24-year-old, had a good look at 51-year-old Sam Thursday as the PGA senior champion shot eight birdies and grabbed a three-stroke first-round lead with a superb seven-under-par 64.

Nicklaus was to get another good look at Sam today. They were paired together for the first two rounds of the 72-hole tournament.

Nicklaus, sharpening his game for next week's defense of the Masters championship, had this to say of the old master after he had posted a 70 to trail Sam by six shots:

"Sam is amazing. He has enough nerve to play shots the way they should be played. Some men at his age play what you might call 'skinny' golf. But he keeps hitting the ball close to the pole. He's amazing."

When Nicklaus won the Masters last spring, Snead was only two strokes off the pace in a third-place tie. He has won the classic three times, the last in 1954.

Although he has curtailed his tournament play sharply in recent years, the old slammer from the Virginia hills has been amazingly sharp in his few appearances.

He has taken away more than $27,000 from Greensboro, where his record includes seven victories and eight seconds or thirds.

His 64 Thursday was good for a $400 bonus check, awarded daily for the low round.

Sam had one three-putt green for his only bogey and had four birdies on each side of the 7,000-yard Sedgely Country Club course, with par of 36-35.

Starting today's play, Australian Bill Dunk and George Bayer were in second place at 67, one shot in front of U.S. Open champion Julius Boros.

Six men shared fifth place at 69, among them British Open champ Bob Charles and Gene Littler.

Joining Nicklaus at 70 were six men, including Arnold Palmer. Still without a victory this year, Palmer started the first three holes three over par, then unleashed seven birdies.

Braves Have Won 13 of 16 in Exhibition

By MURRAY CHASS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Milwaukee officials don't mind if Joe Torre remains angry with them the entire season. They wouldn't even mind trying the same tactics next season — if the final results this year are as profitable as the beginning.

For Torre, however, a repeat performance by the Braves' management wouldn't be profitable. That's what made him angry this year. He arrived at camp about three weeks late following a long contract hassle with President John McHale.

Now after only two weeks, the 23-year-old catcher-first baseman is batting .500. His two-run homer in the 11th inning powered the Braves to a 7-5 triumph over Pittsburgh Thursday, their 13th in 16 exhibition games. The winning blow was Torre's fourth hit of the day.

Torre, whose brother, Frank, also played for the Braves, accepted less money than he wanted after deciding "I wasn't going to let one man spoil my career." He referred to McHale.

The Brooklyn native reportedly signed for about $25,000. McHale said he had asked for a 100 per cent increase over his 1963 salary of $17,500.

In his third year with Milwaukee, Torre batted .293, the best average among catchers in the major leagues.

Houston's Jim Wynn also came through in an extra-inning effort, smashing a 12th-inning grand-slam home run which gave the Colts an 8-4 victory against the New York Mets.

Wynn also had a two-run homer in the eighth that tied the game. Six of the other seven exhibition contests were decided by one run. Only Cincinnati's 8-3 triumph over Detroit was not a close game.

St. Louis handed Sandy Kousser and the Los Angeles Dodgers a 2-1 setback while Minnesota rallied in the eighth for a 2-1 victory against the New York Yankees. Philadelphia nipped Kansas City in still another 2-1 game on John Herrnstein's ninth-inning single.

Dick Dietz' single in the ninth carried San Francisco over Cleveland 4-3, three walks by rookie Wally Bunker in the ninth paved the way for the Chicago White Sox' 8-7 triumph against Baltimore and the Los Angeles Angels squeezed by the Chicago Cubs 6-5, giving Ken McBride his fourth decision.

U.S. Womens Cage Team Rated Chance

By JIM BECKER

NEW YORK (AP)—If the officiating is anything like the customs inspection, the world champion Soviet girls basketball team might be heading for its first defeat on American soil.

The Russian girls fought their way through some pretty strenuous whistle blowing on their arrival for a five game series.

Among other things, the eagle-eyed New York customs officials:

Sat them down to make their forms out all over again.

Relieved the star center of three shriveled, yellow lemons, with a cry of triumph.

And threatened to take back a bouquet of flowers that the AAU had given to the team captain to welcome the Russian girls to America.

The team arrived Thursday and will fly to Kansas City today to get ready for the first game Monday at Joplin, Mo., against the Wayland Flying Queens of Texas.
